Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 22-23, filed 05/16/11, with respect to claims 1-6, 8-16, 18-20, 22, 24, 26, 30, 34 and 38 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-6, 8-16, 18-20, 22, 24, 26, 30, 34 and 38 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-6, 8-16, 18-20, 22, 24, 26, 30, 34 and 38 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 8, 22 and 24 are allowable because the prior art fails to teach or suggest generating a menu (or electronic program guide) with a single video clip of multiple video clips is repositioned from one of a different portion of a split screen video channel to a position in the menu, as recited within the claims.

4. A background search found similar prior art, however, not completely as claimed.

For example, Justice (3,953,666) discloses a system for transmitting and receiving a video channel with a split screen video with multiple video clips positioned in different portions of the split screen. Justice alone or in combination, however, fails to disclose generating a menu with a single video clip of the multiple video clips repositioned from one of the different portions of the split screen video channel to a position in the menu.

Lumelsky et al. (5,283,561) discloses a system for repositioning portions of a received video signal on a display. Lumelsky alone or in combination, however, fails to disclose generating a menu with a single video clip of multiple video clips repositioned from one of different portions of a split screen video channel to a position in the menu.

Strubbe et al. (5,047,867) discloses generating a menu with a system with a video repositioned to a position in the menu. Strubbe alone or in combination, however, fails to disclose generating a menu with a single video clip of multiple video clips repositioned from one of different portions of a split screen video channel to a position in the menu.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
